Dear Sirs - I sent you to day, via
w. J. Express Co the coin Cabinet I wrote you about. I enclose in this letter the two keys belonging to it. I would like to realize twelve dollars out of the cabinet. That would necessitate asking sixteen dollars for it.
Your advice upon that question would help me however as you see these things sold & know what is a reasonable price to ask for it. I only know what it cost to have it made. If this price, in your opinion, is unreasonably high or if you think it would bring more I would be pleased to have you advise me.
I sold out coins and stamps some time ago - Present "Hobby" is Indian arrows Spears axes etc. Yours very truly

Dear Sirs -

The Cabinet left my hands in perfect condition and I packed it according to instructions given by my Bro in Law who is a furniture dealer. I valued the Cabinet at twenty dollars on the bill of lading given by the express company (West-Jersey express Co) so if you will give eight-dollars for it - as you used it I am going to make a claim for twelve dollars from the company - They will doubtless send an agent to see you about it - so if you can help me by furnishing a just valuation on the Cabinet in a good condition and what it is worth now I will be much obliged

To you - Don't say anything to the agent of the Company about it not being noted because my Brother says that is not the custom except for articles sent by mail - send check for eight-dollars and help me get damages
from West Jersey Press Co. and I will be much obliged to you If you could send me a letter stating that in your opinion it was damaged to the extent of twelve dollars & some quarters help me to have it this way
Yours truly

S. H. & H. Chapman:

Dear Sirs - I have put in a claim for twelve dollars damages for the Cabinet: but the agent in Bridgeton tells me that the company employs a Cabinet-maker whose duty it is to repair damages to furniture and that most likely they will repair this cabinet if it can be repaired to their advantage - at any rate he told me that their adjuster would call upon you and inspect the damaged piece and let me to think the company would do the right thing. Yours etc David R. Strout

Dear Sirs - 11/15/04

Check came duely to hand this A.M. as you send check I suppose you accept my conditions, that is. you will try to assist me in recovering damages from express co - Have they called yet to look at the cabinet - I imagine that they will repair it. Though they may be slower than Indus in zero.

Dear Sirs -

I have settled with the W. J. Express Co. for damages to the Coin Cabinet. by accepting two dollars and fifty Cents. This makes me ten dollars and fifty cents for The Cabinet. at best I did not hope to net more than twelve dollars for it - so I am pretty well satisfied. The Cabinet is yours - With regards I remain Yours very truly
